Marching Legends to give thanks at annual event

This Friday the Marching Legends will host their annual Community Night Performance. The event will begin at 6:00pm at Chambers Field.

The Marching Legends will give alumni and supporters a chance to see a free performance by the Marching Legends in full uniform, complete with props, as an expression of gratitude for the community's continued support. Community Night will also give viewers the chance to get an up close, behind-the-scenes view of how the Marching Legends prepare for a contest.

The event is free, and open to the public. There will concessions for sale, including sloppy joe or hot dog meals for $5.00, begin at 5:30pm and lasting throughout the event. Donations will also be accepted.

Stiff competition awaits at East Noble

This Saturday the Marching Legends will compete in the East Noble Invitational in Kendallville, Indiana.

There will be six Open Class B bands competing, including perennial State contenders Munster (4th at State in 2018) and DeKalb (10th at State in 2017). The Marching Legends look to gain momentum as they prepare for the ISSMA Semi-State contest on November 2nd.
